Issue:	Born:	Where:
1) JAMES GROVER, III	November 1607	Chesham, Buckinghamshire, England
2) HANNAH GROVER	circa 1625	Chesham, Buckinghamshire, England

According to the Chesham Parish Register: JAMES, son of JAMES GROVER, married ANNE EAMES on 24 April 1605. Their son JAMES was baptized on 8 November 1607. JAMES GROVER, JUNIOR died on 7 January 1616.²

ANNE was a servant to MISTER ANTHONY SAWREY before they married. JAMES occupation is given as a weaver when he married and a glover when his son was baptized. With both professions he may have been required to belong to a guild. Glovers were members of the leather guild.

There is some confusion surrounding this couple as another JAMES GROVER was born around 11 July 1621 in Chesham to JOHN GROVER and MARTHA MONK. Establishing which JAMES is our direct ancestor has been problematic.

The CHEESEMANS family may come from the same town.

Issue:

- 1) JAMES GROVER, III: married REBECCA CHEESEMANS. Their story is continued in a separate section.
- 2) HANNAH GROVER: married WILLIAM I. LAWRENCE around 1656 in Gravesend. Their story is continued in a separate section.
